

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

27 Sep – 3 Oct, 2021

ARIES RISING

Mercury goes retrograde in your house of relationships, Aries. This can throw any negotiations up into the air, and create confusion. Don't be too impulsive and reflect before you agree to anything. Above all, be kind and understanding – we're all in the same boat, after all.

TAURUS RISING

Venus, your ruler, is behaving beautifully this week. Her trine to Neptune creates compassion, forgiveness and a soulmate-like feeling, whether towards yourself or someone special. You're also ready to step into your power place, but be sure not to overdo it.

GEMINI RISING

Your ruler, Mercury, goes retrograde this week in your romance area, Gemini. This can reflect a time where it's hard to make any kind of decisions and you may try and flirt your way through things. Be careful of this, as it may create more of a mess than you bargained for.

CANCER RISING

Communicating can get tricky this week, Cancer, especially with a family member or partner. This is the second time you're faced with a drama, and it's your choice whether to walk away or indulge it. Try to find a win-win solution, but don't be manipulated.

LEO RISING

You can come to a place of much greater understanding with the people who matter in your life this week, Leo. There's an air of positivity around, even if you're feeling a touch confused or indecisive. You just know that things are going to be okay.

VIRGO RISING

Your ruler, Mercury, is going retrograde in your financial zone for the next few weeks, Virgo. This means that it's very important for you to keep the balance and not make any major material decisions – if you can. If you can't avoid it, just go slowly.

LIBRA RISING

Mercury goes retrograde in your sign this week, Libra. As an indecisive sign, this can throw you off a little, so be aware of this and be compassionate and be patient with yourself. Your ruler, Venus, is helping you as best she can, especially in the world of work and finances.

SCORPIO RISING

Venus in your sign aligns with Neptune in your romance zone this week, Scorpio. This can bring a truly magical connection along, or reignite an existing relationship for you. Alternatively, you may feel extremely artistically inspired, which spurs you on to create more beauty in your world.

SAGITTARIUS RISING

Your ruler, Jupiter, aligns with both Venus and Mercury this week, which can bring along pleasurable times, though you'll have to beware of going too far. Excessiveness is always your greatest lesson, and you need to know where to draw the line, Sagittarius.

CAPRICORN RISING

The Sun and your ruler, Saturn, meet in a strong trine this week, Capricorn. This can indicate a time where you're ready to take on even more responsibility, especially at work, and the chances are good you'll be acknowledged for your strengths.

AQUARIUS RISING

Mercury aligns with Jupiter in your sign this week, Aquarius, lending you a philosophical, teacher-like energy. You're already a natural teacher, so use this to your advantage, and don't doubt yourself for a moment. You have immense wisdom, so show it to the world.

PISCES RISING

You may find yourself going back to the drawing board when it comes to money and finances, Pisces, especially over joint resources. Try and take this time to review and reflect, especially if there are other people involved. Also, try and keep things light, as your mind may get a little heavy now.
