COSMIC ALIGNMENTS FOR THE WEEK

WHAT TO DO AND WHAT NOT TO DO

FEBRUARY 8TH – FEBRUARY 14TH 2021

SUN CONJUNCT MERCURY

Chatty, chatty, aren't we! This is a very communicative and inspiring alignment to kick the week off. In Aquarius, we are thinking far ahead into the future, and dreaming of a new world! This is a brilliant, expressive week where we can truly be heard and understood!

DO:

Express yourself with your words. Have a conversation, teach a class, write a piece on something you feel insured by! Teach, and learn – be both the student and the scholar the week. There's something to excite you out there, guaranteed!

DON'T:

Stop listening. It's easy to get wrapped up in our own words and opinions, especially in know-it-all Aquarius. Give others a chance to speak, too! Don't be stubborn. As open minded as you may think you are, you may actually not be coming across that way, believe it or not!

MERCURY SQUARE MARS

Ouch! Did what you say there hurt someone? This is a sharp configuration, and although quick-minded, can bring up conflicts in communication.

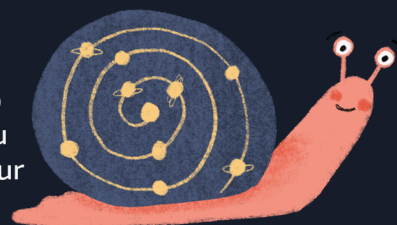

DO:

Put your mind to accomplishing a task, fast. Dash off those emails, make up your mind quickly and enjoy the urge to communicate, right now! Cut through the nonsense. Get straight to the point, and be honest. It will serve you. But also, remember to be kind.

DON'T:

Make reckless mistakes. Check your spelling, phrasing and grammar before you press "send". You don't want to feel embarrassed at being called out, do you? Or worse, have to re-do work. Don't react too fast with your words. You have the power this week to cut someone down, and to create tension in your relationships. Slow down!

VENUS CONJUNCT JUPITER

When Venus and Jupiter come together, great fun and pleasure can be had! This is the configuration of love, and lots of it! In fact, there can even be too much of a good thing, so practicing restraint may be hard!

DO:

Bask in the pleasures of life. Dress up, go dancing (if you can), eat all the food and drink all the wine! Spend your money and indulge yourself, just a little. Spread the love. There's so much to go around, especially when it comes to your friends. Give them bear hugs, tell them you care, buy them gifts. Be that social butterfly, the life of the party!

DON'T:

Overdo it. It's going to be very hard to control yourself, but you may get a tummy ache, and empty bank account or something worse from all the indulgence!

MERCURY CONJUNCT VENUS

When Mercury joins Venus, we just want to express your affection and creativity through words. We want to connect with others and let them know we care. We're thinking romantically. Sigh. So perfect for Valentine's month, right? This is also a wonderful time to fall in love with your education, with learning something, and to think about clever ways to manage your money.

DO:

Get creative. Pen a poem, write a story, sing a song. Mercury-Venus is very characteristic of singers and songwriters, so even just listening to music or poetry may be dreamy! Communicate to someone how you feel about them. Talk about your relationship. Watch the love grow and grow! After all, it's what you put in. Make some financial decisions, based on what your wishes for the future. Mercury is the mind, and Venus can rule money, so there you go!

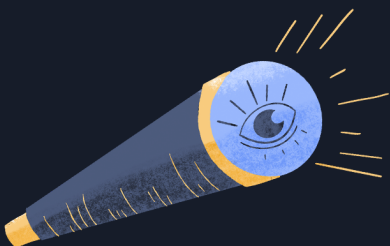

DON'T:

Forget to pay attention to the other parts of your life, too. Romance, love and relationships may take over your mind so completely that you forget to pay bills and be responsible! You still need to be an adult, you know! Don't ignore your buddies. Whilst romantic love is great, your friendships need that nurturing too. Maybe you can merge time with buddies together with time with your lover. Include everyone in the love this week!

MERCURY CONJUNCT JUPITER

In addition to the gorgeous Mercury-Venus conjunction, we also have the generous joining of Mercury to Jupiter. This aligns the rational mind and the philosophical one, bringing us wonderful, grand visions! But also, lots of talking. Lots!

DO:

Get yourself into a position where you can learn, teach or be part of a group or community that is teaching skills and sharing ideas. This is the time to expand your mind, to take in as much information as possible! Pay attention to your dreams, visions and ideals. How can you make them a reality?

DON'T:

Talk too much without grounded action. With this conjunction, it's very easy to fall in love with our own voice, our own ideas, forgetting to take action. Aquarius sometimes lives too far high in the clouds and forget to plant their feet firmly on the ground.

NEW MOON IN AQUARIUS

It's a lovely New Moon! In Aquarius, it's all about education, friendship, community and togetherness. It's about finding your tribe and setting your wishes and hopes for the future. This New Moon feels light and fresh, and oh-so-inspiring!

DO:

Set intentions to find your tribe. If you could pick the type of people and friends in your life that you would really want, who would they be? What would they believe in? What passions would you share? Make it your mission to find them! Set out to do a course of study in the next few months. What would you learn, if you could learn anything? Would it be Yoga Teacher Training? Or studying the science of Crystals? Or perhaps Social Media Marketing? Whatever tickles your fancy!

DON'T:

Expect instant results. New Moon are times when the seed is planted, not when the seed grows and takes shape. Right now, the soil is rich and perfect for anything new to be sown. Don't stay inside for this one. Connect with your people, share this New Moon energy. It's one of the few social New Moons, and you're feeling as if there is hope for the future.
