

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

11 - 17 April, 2022

ARIES RISING

It's a new phase for you, Aries, as your ruler, Mars, heads into sensitive and empathetic Pisces. You may find that your energies turn more towards spiritual pursuits, and that there's a greater desire to be alone with yourself.

The zone connected to idealism, dreams and visions for the future is very much emphasized for you this week, Taurus. And it's possible that you're thinking bigger than you ever have before. Connection to a spiritual community may also be high on your priority list.

TAURUS RISING

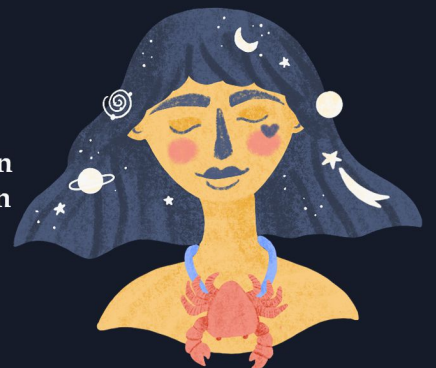

GEMINI RISING

Get ready for some big moves in your career this week, Gemini! With the alignment of Jupiter and Neptune, plus the ingress of warrior Mars into this area, the sky's the limit. Just be sure to have good boundaries and to keep your feet on the ground.

CANCER RISING

This Full Moon could bring along some sort of decision or culmination in your home zone, Cancer. Home is ultra-important to you, so pay attention to this and make sure that you're following your heart closely. Listen to your gut.

LEO RISING

Despite some of the very floaty and drifty energies around at the moment, you're probably feeling quite grounded and stable in yourself. You have planet Saturn to thank for this, as well as the people in your life who are holding space for you.

VIRGO RISING

There's a gathering of energy in your relationship zone this week, Virgo. This could mean that important events come to unfold here, or that you encounter someone who is instrumental in your spiritual development. Just be sure that you are seeing things clearly.

LIBRA RISING

A Full Moon in your sign is important, Libra. It means that something in your life is coming full circle or even coming to an end. It's not an easy end, seeing as Pluto is involved, so you'll have to stay away from power struggles and drama.

SCORPIO RISING

Almost as if continuing the theme of vulnerability, openness and passion, there's a deep Jupiter-Neptune alignment in this same area for you, as well as the entry of Mars. Phew, Scorpio - can you handle all of this emotional power? Sure you can.

SAGITTARIUS RISING

Big moves could be made in your home life now - it's as if a dream is coming true. But is it a dream, or is it a fantasy? That's what you have to figure out, Sagittarius. Luckily, you always seem to land on your feet.

CAPRICORN RISING

This Libra Full Moon cod has something to say about your career. Capricorn - a climax has been reached, one that has been building for the last few months. Are you happy with what you're seeing? If not, then it's time to let go.

AQUARIUS RISING

Self-worth seems to be an important theme for you this week, Aquarius. You seem to know your limits now, as well as your strengths, skills and unique talents. This all helps to build a growing feeling of confidence.

PISCES RISING

What a week you have ahead of you, Pisces! Your ancient and modern rulers, Jupiter and Neptune, are connecting in a powerful conjunction, bringing many of your dreams to life. You may be seeing the world through rose-colored glasses now, so be sure to hold onto something that grounds you in reality.
