

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

18 - 24 April, 2022

ARIES RISING

The Sun is about to leave your sign, Aries, signaling the end of your birthday season. The next thing to focus on is your material security and what you hold most dear and valuable to you. Make sure these two topics align.

It's the start of your birthday season, Taurus – hooray! The world is your oyster from this point onwards, and it's up to you to decide which road you'd like to take. Be open to changing things in a big and unexpected way.

TAURUS RISING

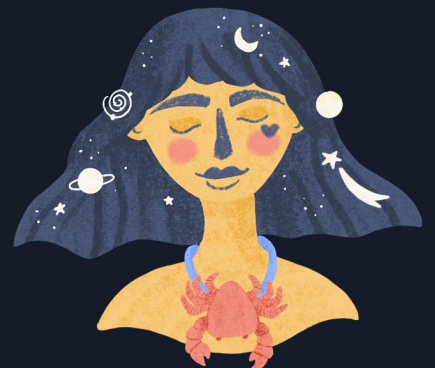

GEMINI RISING

Your ruler, Mercury, is very busy this week. You may be having quite a few epiphanies from behind the scenes, and it could be tough to decide which flash of inspiration to follow right now. Let things percolate a little longer.

Expect rapid change in the area of your social circles, and perhaps a chance encounter with someone very interesting. However personal, close relationships look to be a challenge this week, so go lightly and don't buy into drama.

CANCER RISING

LEO RISING

The cosmos is challenging you this week, so you can rest assured this intensity isn't in your imagination. Work specifically seems to be a source of crisis, and you'll have to find a creative way to get through problems that come up.

VIRGO RISING

Relationships in particular are likely to go very smoothly this week, and perhaps offer you something spiritual or growth-provoking. Perhaps someone or something comes along that wakes you up right out of your comfort zone. Go with it.

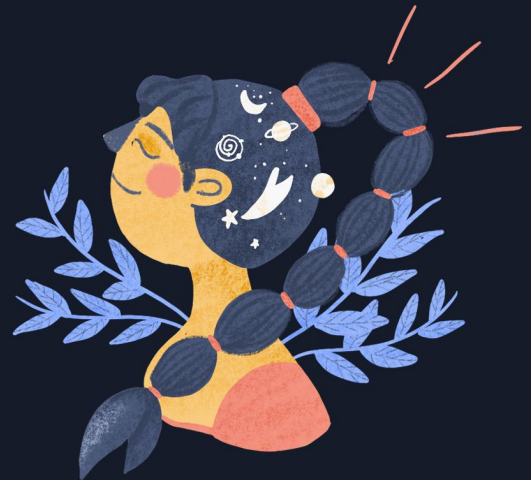

LIBRA RISING

Your personal life could feel tricky this week, to say the least. Intense moments interspersed by sudden changes seem to be on the cards, and you'll need to ensure that you aren't backing down when you shouldn't.

SCORPIO RISING

Communication issues might be the flavor of the week for you, and you might feel silenced by a family member or partner - unable to speak your truth. With that said, perhaps you need to listen more, speak less and process deeply before making any decisions.

SAGITTARIUS RISING

On one hand, you could be thinking in a way that you've never done before and solving problems ever so innovatively. On the other hand, you might be doubting yourself every step of the way. Don't. You're so much smarter than you gave yourself credit for.

CAPRICORN RISING

A career issue may rear its head this week, and it's likely not going to be a pretty show. You may be ready to completely purge, exit or destroy a certain facet of your work, but just be sure you aren't being too dramatic.

AQUARIUS RISING

Saturn in your sign squares Mercury, planet of communication, this week. This could lead to wisdom and deep insight, yet at the same time, it's also about learning to overcome your own intellectual insecurities and speak up.

You could be in the mood for something completely different this week. Go somewhere you've never been before, learn something new or engage yourself in a tactile workshop such as pottery or something like that. Go for it! C'est La Vie, right?

PISCES RISING
