

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

24 - 30 January, 2022

ARIES RISING

Yay! Your ruler, Mars, enters a very strong sign, the sign of Capricorn this week. This brings a huge focus to work for you, even more so than usual. It's a time where you can really get things accomplished, Aries.

TAURUS RISING

Your ruler, Venus, is finally going Direct, Taurus. This should clear up a lot of relationship dramas for you, and set things straight. It's also a time where travel becomes a lot smoother, if you're planning it. You'll also be happy to hear, if you're a student, that things should go so much more easily for you.

GEMINI RISING

Your ruler, Mercury, slips back into the sign of Capricorn this week, Gemini. This brings quite a lot of focus on your material world, and finances especially. You may be needing to make a couple of important decisions here now that things seem to be clearer.

CANCER RISING

All the planets seem to be behaving for you in your relationship zone this week, Cancer. You should feel a serious increase on the passion side of things, but just be careful it doesn't slide into conflict. And don't allow yourself to be controlled – instead, communicate, and communicate well.

LEO RISING

Your ruler, the Sun, is squaring up with Uranus this week, Leo. This stirs up your rebellious side and potentially creates quite a bit of chaos in the workplace. Be careful of going overboard, no matter how you're feeling in the moment.

VIRGO RISING

Mercury, your ruler, goes back into earthy Capricorn this week during his retrograde period. This highlights relationships the most for you, and brings quite a bit of passionate energy to your words and your actions. Just be aware of the language you're choosing, as you could come off as forceful.

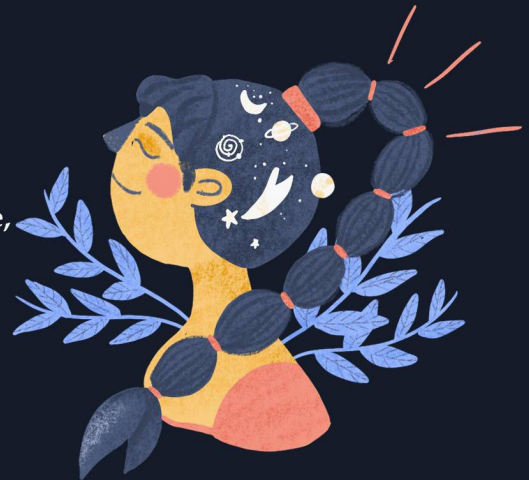

LIBRA RISING

Yay, Libra! Your ruler, Venus, goes direct the week and brings a lot more peace and calm with her. However, Mars is acting up in your domestic zone, so be careful of possible conflicts and controlling behavior right on your very doorstep.

SCORPIO RISING

Your ancient ruler, Mars, changes signs and becomes a lot stronger this week, Scorpio. This is great for you, as it brings more endurance, focus and determination. Plus, you should be having some pretty great ideas as well. Just don't be too forceful with them.

SAGITTARIUS RISING

Once again, money is likely on your mind, Sagittarius. Big decisions need to be made - again - and you also need to put your money where your mouth is. Taking structured and concerted action will make you feel safe and secure.

CAPRICORN RISING

So much going on in your sign this week, Capricorn! Venus goes direct, Mars comes in and Mercury also re-enters your sign. It's all about you right now, so what can you do to make yourself stand out? You're ready and willing to take action, and success awaits!

AQUARIUS RISING

The Sun and Uranus clash this week, Aquarius, leading to all kinds of potentially risky behaviors for you. You'll need to be careful of causing too much upset on the domestic front and ask yourself if the actions that you want to take are really worth it.

You're likely to breathe quite a sigh of relief as Venus goes direct in your social zone, Pisces. Finally, the drama is coming to an end. Yet there's still some conversations that need to be had, and they need to be done with depth and vulnerability.

PISCES RISING
